

BOOK REVIEW

- Author: H.G. Wells
- Fiction / Nonfiction: fiction
- Genre: fantasy
- Rating: 3.2

The Book In 3 Sentences

1. a spooky mysterious book
2. a well written descriptive novel enclosed in fantasy
3. not so fancy but keeps it in tact

Impressions

was a new experience, a fantasy i might say which is well written and such a spooky flavor it has to it. the books is fairly one of the underrated fantasy novel i really liked how the cover art was done and how the story lining went on

Who should read it

well i think the book can is easily digestible and understandable but i would recommend this book to some one who has dealt with fictions before this really is not the one meant for a beginner

How The Book Changed Me

new words , nothing much i learned from this fiction, but a lot of new words and also a new writing scheme flavored with different types of emotions and filled with certain expressions

My Top 3 Quotes

- I hope, or I could not live.
- An animal may be ferocious and cunning enough, but it takes a real man to tell a lie.
- I was merely a bit of human

Summary + Notes

seems like i couldn't get anything to summarize out of this book