

The author : Wells herbert George

Genre : science fiction

From 1-5 : 5

The book is 3 sentence :- a very interesting and enticing book filled with science and suspense. It was a great book which created the 19th C life and the emotions that even most of us feel in this present world.

What feelings did this book evoke :- curiosity, suspense and solitude.

What questions do you still have :- What happened to the beast folk ?

Who should read it :- everybody who can !

How the book changed me :- it got thinking about my life and how i see most of the people around me as prendick saw the beast folk and it made me want learn about vivisection.

Top 5 quotes :-

- 1, Biological evolution does not ensure moral progress,
- 2, What's it all for, Prendick? Are we bubbles blown by a baby?"
- 3, I hope, or I could not live.
- 4, Then with men, the more intelligent they become, the more intelligently they will see after their own welfare,
- 5, "The study of Nature makes a man at last as remorse-less as Nature.

Summary + Notes

The story which had a great entry told the it in a flawless way and made the reader experience the feelings of prendick and the author tried to explain the science behind the beast folk and it had a great descriptive quality to it

